Description

With its unique hull design and the ability to be powered with up to 200hp, ample usable interior space, including standard back-to-back seats and squabs in the front cabin, Senator's RH 620 offers unbeatable value in its class.

An entry angle of 26 degrees varying to 18 degrees at the stern gives you the capability to safely stay out with larger boats and often be first home – even in rough weather.

Dive bottle storage along the uniquely folded pontoon is one of a long list of features standard on this model.
